I BRING MY HEART TO JESUS by Herbert Howard Booth

I bring my heart to Jesus, with its fears,
With its hopes and feelings, and its tears;
Him it seeks, and finding, it is blest;
Him it loves, and loving, is at rest.
Walking with my Saviour, heart in heart, none can part.

I bring my sins to Jesus, as I pray
That his blood will wash them all away;
While I seek for favour at his feet,
And with tears his promise still repeat,
He doth tell me plainly:
Jesus lives, and forgives.

I bring my life to Jesus, with its care,
And before his footstool leave it there;
Faded are its treasures, pure and dim;
It is not worth living without him.
More than life is Jesus,
love and peace, ne'er to cease.

I bring my all to Jesus: he hath seen
How my soul desireth to be clean.
Nothing from his altar I withhold
When his cross of suffering I behold;
And the fire descending brings to me liberty.

FOR THY MISSION MAKE ME HOLY by Brindley Boon

Thou hast called me from the byway
To proclaim thy wondrous love;
Thou hast placed me on the highway
That to all men I may prove
There is mission in my living,
There is meaning in my word;
Saviour, in my daily striving
May this message yet be heard.

*For thy mission make me holy.
For thy glory make me thine.
Sanctify each moment fully.
Fill my life with love divine.*

Have I lost the sense of mission
That inspired my early zeal,
When the fire of thy commission
Did my dedication seal?
Let me hear thy tender pleading,
Let me see thy beckoning hand,
Let me feel thee gently leading
As I bow to thy command.

Lord, release that latent passion
Which in me has dormant lain;
Recreate a deep compassion
That will care and care again.
Needy souls are still my mission,
Sinners yet demand my love;
This must be my life's ambition,
This alone my heart shall move.
