9:38

Call to Worship

Call to Worship
(Based on Matthew 9 : 35-38, The Message)

Leader: We gather today as a body of believers who follow the Good Shepherd! We look to our shepherd for protection, we listen to his voice for direction, his very presence brings us peace.

Response: May our Good Shepherd, lead us.

Leader: We desire for our Good Shepherd to meet us in these sacred moments and remind us of the good news.

Response: We long for others to encounter the good news. God, we pray for harvest hands!

Leader: We gather as a people who have received hope and healing, in Jesus' name.

Response: We long for transformation to impact more lives. God, we pray for harvest hands!

Leader: We gather as a people that have been changed by the teachings of our Good Shepherd.

Response: We long for His teachings to reach more people. God, we pray for harvest hands!

Leader: Today we pause and remember everything that the Good Shepherd has done for us. In response, we offer him our own harvest hands that are ready to serve.

Response: We pray for harvest hands, knowing that these hands start with us.

All: We surrender our hands to work for the harvest. We pray that more hands will join our efforts. We trust that the Good Shepherd will provide what we need, for His honor and glory. Amen.
