

Keep Connected

Salvationist January 2019

This Month:

- Cadet Kathryn Dueck didn't think she was officer material. God disagreed.
- Cadet Stephen Frank asks: What are the consequences of a data-driven world?

Ready for Adventure

Fun, friendship and service at the 1st Northridge Salvation Army Scout Group.

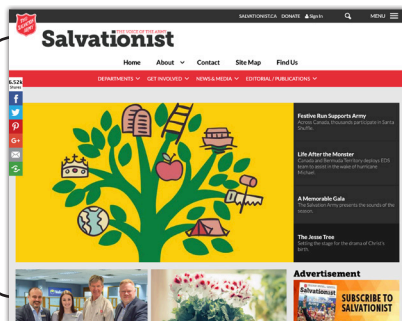

The Bible Is Clear ... Or Is it?

Proof-texting is antithetical to the gospel.

@theREADY

Help us reimagine youth and children's discipleship for our territory.

On January 10, Commissioner Susan McMillan, territorial commander, will address the Canada and Bermuda Territory live from territorial headquarters in Toronto. Visit Salvationist.ca/newyearaddress at 11 a.m. (EST) for her thoughts on 2018 and plans for the year ahead.

Keep Connected

Faith & Friends January 2019

- At The Salvation Army's Heritage Park Temple in Winnipeg, children connect with God and one another.
- How could Salvation Army chaplain Lorna Frost look into the eyes of someone who had taken another person's life?

God's Warrior

Amanda Rivait's church family has been with her all the way through her struggle with Huntington's disease.

Fear Less

Tightrope walker Nik Wallenda finds the right balance thanks to his faith.

Just for Kids January 2019

This Month:

- Go on a journey with Abram.
- Find out how Moses went from orphan to God's messenger.
- Meet Jesus as a young boy.
- Learn why God is like a shepherd.
- Plus stories, puzzles, colouring, jokes and more!