

Keep Connected

Salvationist November 2019

- This Remembrance Day, let's reflect upon the sacrifice made by so many to preserve the freedoms we often take for granted, says Colonel Edward Hill.
- Orest and Tracy Goyak were Christians who went to different churches. But where would they worship together?
- Caring for animals is part of creation, states Darryn Oldford.

Skeleton Army Debuts Off-Broadway

New Salvation Army musical, conceived and performed by Canadians, captivates audiences at Theatre 315 in New York City.

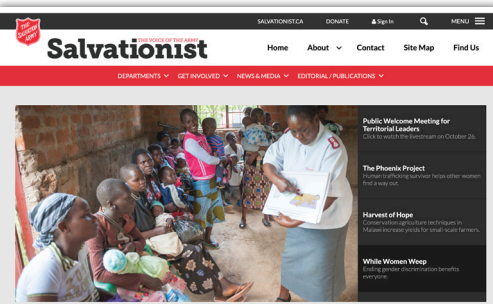

Messengers of Grace Welcomed

Twenty-eight cadets enter the College for Officer Training, the most in 15 years.

All in a Day's Work

A Salvation Army program helps persons with disabilities find fulfilment through employment.

This month on Salvationist.ca, Captain Krista Andrews shares how running became a journey of self-discovery and spiritual awakening.

Keep Connected

Faith & Friends November 2019

- The Salvation Army's Warm Room offers love, care and community.
- Appearing on The Voice was just the beginning for country singer Emily Ann Roberts.

Faith on High

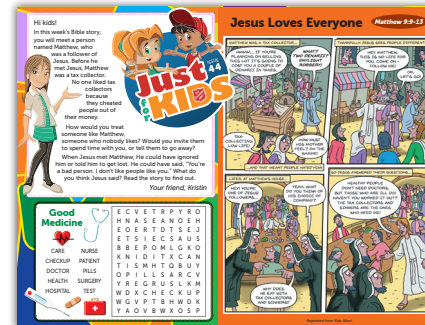

Salvation Army Commissioner Harry Read parachuted into Normandy (again) for a cause and a calling.

Frozen 2

Anna and Elsa need to leave the past behind. Can we do the same?

Just for Kids November 2019

This Month:

- Honour veterans on Remembrance Day.
- Meet Matthew, the tax collector no one liked—except Jesus.
- Pray for the leaders of Canada.
- Find out how God helped Elijah, one of His messengers.
- Plus stories, puzzles, colouring, jokes and more!