

tips for youth workers

DECEMBER 2017

THEME NIGHTS

Looking for ways to add a little extra excitement to your midweek kids' programs? Why not have theme nights throughout the year or each week. Below are some ideas that you might like to try. Pick a theme and then let your imagination go wild. Be sure to tie in your activities, food, crafts and devotional to the theme you've chosen.

Get Wet Night	Glow In the Dark Night
Black and White Night (come dressed in black and white,	Camp In Night (bring in small tents, sleeping bags, flash
have an Oreo stacking contest, put black paper on walls and	lights and an indoor campfire, hotdogs, s'mores and sing
give kids white crayons to draw graffiti on it)	camp songs)
Beach Night (do in January)	Ugly Sweater Night
Bible Heroes Night	Spy Night
Great Affliction Night (dress up wounded: sprained ankle,	Olympics Night (silly competition with balloon volleyball, black eye, etc. with a devotional on Jesus the Great Physician	weird relays, etc.)
What I Want to be When I Grow Up Night (dress up)	Super Hero Night
Eat Around the World Night (kids go to different tables	Weird Hair Night (everyone does their hair weird and and taste everything, emphasis on missions)	outrageous) Twins Night (kids dress same as friend and come as "twins",	Hat Night (devotional: talk about the different "hats" we promote visitors)	wear every day and our responsibilities as we "wear" them)
Giant Night (dress in big clothes, play games with giant	Canadian/Bermudian History Night (come dressed as your equipment, devotional on David and Goliath)	favourite character from history)
Dress Your Dog Night (everyone decorates a hot dog, prizes	TP Night (kids wrap each other in toilet paper, devotional on for "best of" categories)	story of Lazarus)
Potato Night (kids decorate a potato, eat baked potatoes with	Army Nights (either military or Salvation Army, serve toppings)	donuts and talk about SA role in WW1 and WW2)
Christmas in July	Balloon Rodeo (check out the book "Special Events" (The Ideas Library) by Youth Specialties)
Watermelon Madness	I Scream, You Scream, We all Scream for Ice Cream
Pirate Plunder	Western Nights
Fishing Frenzy Night (kids use feet to dig bait (plastic gold	Bubble Bonanza (eat edible bubbles, have races with fish) out of a large tub of cold oatmeal, faces to dig gummy	blowing bubble gum, work with bubbles, devotional on when worms out of chocolate pies, dig for lost "fish hooks" in	someone pops our bubble or tries to bring us down, that God
bowls of rice while blindfolded)	is the one who we can turn to when others fail us)
Band-Aid Night (come covered in band-aids)	Sports Night (come dress in your favourite sports gear)
Toothpaste Night (devotional on gossip or anger)	B.A.R.F. Night (Bring A Real Friend Night)
Mystery Night (emphasis on trying to solve a puzzle/crime/	Silent Night / Holey Night (leaders will love this quiet incident. Integrate the concepts of the Clue board game)	night)
When I Was Wittle Night (kids dress up as babies, bring	Drive in Movie Night (kids bring cardboard box "cars" they baby photos)	have made to see the movie)
Caveman Night	50's Night
Green Scene (have everyone wear green, have green snacks,	Put It In Your Pocket Night (kids stuff their pockets with green games and prizes. Devotional on envy (coveting))	as many different things as possible. Then call out a Junk Night (pack your pockets with junk, play "Let's Make	prepared list of items. Discover what your kids thought of,
1	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
a Deal" and call out items they may have in their pockets)	serve pita pocket snacks)
Star Wars Night	Star Search

