He said to them,
“Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation.”
(Mark 16:15 NIV)

Dear Cadets,

What a joy and privilege it is for Commissioner Bronwyn and I to greet you on this day of your ordination and commissioning as Salvation Army officers.

Today is a day of both congratulations and anticipation. You are to be commended for completing your training—well done! The time of preparation has come to an end—now you step out into officership equipped for the mission and ready to act.

Your mission, as declared in your Officer Covenant, is clear: “Called by God, to proclaim the gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ as an officer of The Salvation Army.” The mission of the Army is God’s mission—to “go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation” (Mark 16:15 NIV). This is your mission as well. This is your calling. You go out into a world that needs champions. It needs supporters, encouragers, and advocates. It needs you, the servants of God, to be champions of his mission—to seek the lost, feed the hungry and to meet human need in his name without discrimination.

Our prayer for you is Paul’s word to the Church in Colossae: “So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live your lives in him, rooted and built up in him, strengthened in the faith as you were taught, and overflowing with thankfulness” (Colossians 2:6-7). Here is the heart of mission, the strength for ministry: living our lives in God and for God. May you continue to live in and for the Lord as you champion his mission in the years ahead.

May God bless you richly in your service for him.

To the Champions of the Mission Session,

A champion is one who overcomes, one who rises above and presses forward with unwavering resolve. And above all, Jesus is the Champion of champions. He calls us not only to follow him but to emulate him—to walk in his footsteps and share in his victory. Because he has overcome, we, too, can overcome.

As you are released to go into the world, go with confidence. He is not asking you to do anything for which he has not already prepared, empowered and equipped you. Go into all the world—preach, proclaim the good news. Care for the poor. Care for the dying. Care for the hungry and the displaced. Be the gospel in action. Be Jesus.

Be the Lord's champions by giving first place to the call God has placed upon your life, and to the community into which he is sending you to serve.

You will succeed—because he has defeated, surpassed and succeeded. You will overcome—because he has overcome. You will know victory—because in Jesus, by Jesus and through Jesus, there is victory.

Yes, trials and temptations will come. They will try to discourage and distract. But hold firmly to the victory that is found in Jesus.

So go—and do what you have covenanted to do. Give your all. Give your best. All to the glory of God. And he will be with you, sustain you and keep you.

Remember, Champions of the Mission seek not to be like the world, but to be like Jesus. Lead with humility. Serve with gentleness and sincerity. Let your life and ministry inspire others to know him more deeply.

Today, our hearts are full of gratitude and thanksgiving to the Lord, as we witness your ordination and commissioning—and as we release you to ever be Champions of the Mission.

“Yet I am so thankful to God, who always marches us to victory under the banner of the Anointed One; and through us he spreads the beautiful fragrance of his knowledge to every corner of the earth” (2 Corinthians 2:14 The Voice).

Dear Champions of the Mission Session,

On behalf of the CFOT community, I offer heartfelt congratulations as you reach this important milestone: your ordination and commissioning. This moment reflects your dedication, perseverance and obedience to God's call to serve as Salvation Army officers. As you step into this sacred journey, hold close the Scripture from which your sessional name comes, Mark 16:15: "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation."

These powerful words of Jesus remind us of the mission we are called to fulfil: championing the cause of Christ and delivering the hope of the gospel to a world in need.

I deeply admire the spirit you demonstrated throughout your training. As the pioneering session navigating a new training model within our territory, you faced distinct challenges and embraced new opportunities. Yet, through resilience, unity and a reliance on the Holy Spirit, you supported one another and allowed yourselves to be shaped and prepared for ministry. Thank you for your example.

Your ordination and commissioning begin a new chapter in your journey. As you step forward, drawing strength from the lessons, experiences and connections formed during your training, I have full confidence in your readiness to champion God's mission wherever He may lead. Remember His promise in Joshua 1:9: "Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged, for the Lord your God will be with you wherever you go."

THREE STEPS IN THE COMMISSIONING OF SALVATION ARMY OFFICERS

1. The Officer Covenant—Before becoming an officer, each cadet/auxiliary-captain signs a sacred covenant with God, promising to serve Him fully through The Salvation Army. This personal commitment is made during a special service at the training college, witnessed by territorial leadership, training college staff and others, but made solely between the individual and God.

2. Ordination and Commissioning—These are sacred and special moments as the cadets/auxiliary-captains are officially ordained and commissioned as ministers of the gospel. Surrounded by prayer and support, their calling, their commitment to Christ and their dedication to serve others are in line with the mission and values of The Salvation Army.

3. Appointing—With celebration and fanfare, each new officer is formally entrusted with their first appointment, where they will serve and lead. This moment confirms their calling and sends them out as leaders in mission, ready to serve others in Christ's name and help people grow in faith. It marks the beginning of their active ministry as spiritual leaders and mission partners in the work of God through The Salvation Army.

When an officer is commissioned, a covenant is signed—a solemn promise to love and serve God, and to faithfully carry out the duties and responsibilities as an officer in The Salvation Army.

When Salvation Army officers sign this covenant they commit to loving God supremely all their days and to making people's salvation their first priority. The covenant lists some ways in which they do that.

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH

As declared

The cadets (standing) will say: In the name of God the Father, the Son and the Holy Spirit, and in the presence of the officers, soldiers and friends of The Salvation Army here assembled, we declare that:

We believe that the Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments were given by inspiration of God, and that they only constitute the Divine rule of Christian faith and practice.

We believe that there is only one God, who is infinitely perfect, the Creator, Preserver and Governor of all things, and who is the only proper object of religious worship.

We believe that there are three persons in the Godhead—the Father, the Son and the Holy Ghost, undivided in essence and co-equal in power and glory.

Nous croyons qu'il y a dans ce Dieu unique trois personnes réellement distinctes, mais égales en puissance et en gloire : le Père, le Fils et le Saint-Esprit.

We believe that in the person of Jesus Christ the Divine and human natures are united, so that He is truly and properly God and truly and properly man.

We believe that our first parents were created in a state of innocence, but by their disobedience they lost their purity and happiness, and that in consequence of their fall all men have become sinners, totally depraved, and as such are justly exposed to the wrath of God.

We believe that the Lord Jesus Christ has by His suffering and death made an atonement for the whole world so that whosoever will may be saved.

We believe that repentance towards God, faith in our Lord Jesus Christ and regeneration by the Holy Spirit are necessary to salvation.

We believe that we are justified by grace through faith in our Lord Jesus Christ and that he that believeth hath the witness in himself.

We believe that continuance in a state of salvation depends upon continued obedient faith in Christ.

Nous croyons que la possession permanente du salut dépend de la foi constante en Christ et de l'obéissance à sa parole.

We believe that it is the privilege of all believers to be wholly sanctified, and that their whole spirit and soul and body may be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

We believe in the immortality of the soul; in the resurrection of the body; in the general judgment at the end of the world; in the eternal happiness of the righteous; and in the endless punishment of the wicked.

The Chief Secretary will say:

Do you promise faithfully to maintain and proclaim these truths?

The cadets will reply:

We do!

The Chief Secretary will say:

Do you regard it as your duty to bear this witness everywhere, to strive to lead all persons to their only Saviour, and for His sake to care for the poor, feed the hungry, clothe the naked, love the unloved, and befriend those who have no friends?

The cadets will reply:

We do!

The Chief Secretary will say:

Do you promise by holy living, boundless charity and adherence to the principles and discipline of the Army to show yourselves at all times to be faithful officers of The Salvation Army?

The cadets will reply:

We do!

The Chief Secretary will say:

In the name of God I accept the declarations and promises you have made this day. We will now proceed to your ordination and commissioning.

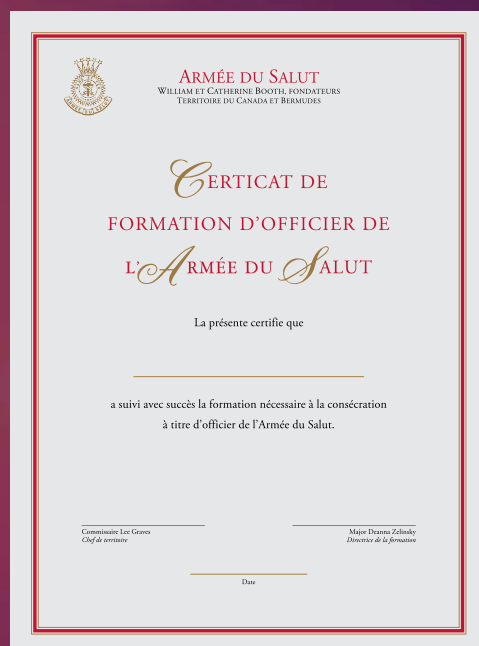

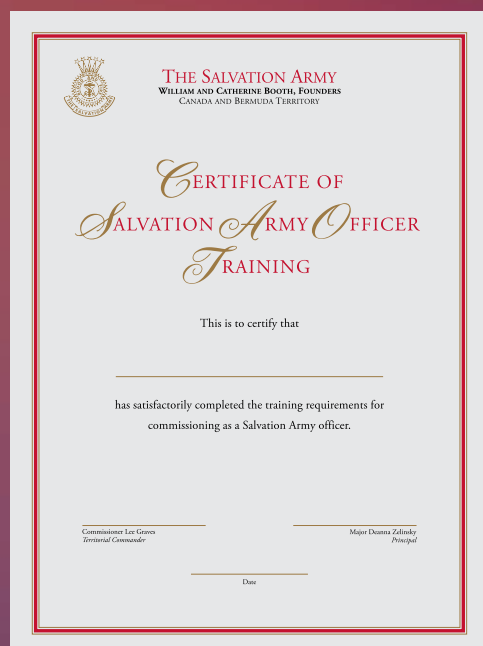

Certificate of Salvation Army Officer Training

The Certificate of Salvation Army Officer Training is not an academic certificate but an acknowledgment that all aspects of officership training—character and spiritual life development, educational attainments and practical skills—have been completed.

The certificate acknowledges that by whatever training pathway the cadet has completed, they have met the requirements for ordination and commissioning.

Certificates and Degrees

The College for Officer Training partners with Booth University College to offer cadets university-level courses that count toward a Bachelor's degree in Biblical and Theological Studies. Cadets earn credits in areas such as theology, administration, and field practicum. Degrees from Booth University College are widely recognized by post-secondary institutions in Canada, the United States and internationally, and can be applied toward further education.
