

Dear warrior queen

Hey Queen hope you are as excited as I am right now about your future. You are probably doing amazing things helping others that were in the same situation as we are.

I love you beautiful. You are amazing.

You can do anything through Christ which strengthens us. You have touched so many people's hearts by shining the Lord's light on our journey by just being the funny, loving, kind warrior Queen you are!

I love you beautiful.

Love, ME
