

WORLD WIDE PRAYER MEETING
April 26, 2018—India National Secretariat

Hebrews 12:2-3

Let us fix our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of our faith, who for the joy set before him endured the cross, scorning its shame, and sat down at the right hand of the throne of God. Consider him who endured such opposition from sinful men, so that you will not grow weary and lose heart.

*Turn your eyes upon Jesus
Look full in his wonderful face
And the things of earth will grow strangely dim
In the light of his glory and grace.*

*Dear Jesus,
Jesus I desire to start this day with you. And yet, my mind keeps flitting to so many things;*

- The projects I want to accomplish
- The people I want to talk to
- The people I wish I didn't have to talk to.

I wonder. Are these things distractions to spiritual concentration or invitations to see God in the ordinary? I'm not sure. Jesus, I know that you are that Center who knows no distraction. SO I offer up my mental fragmentation to you, O Lord my God. May my scatteredness become your gatheredness. As I'm contemplating a thousand things, Jesus, may I somehow be contemplating you.

Amen

Jesus, be the centre
Be my source, be my light
Jesus
Jesus, be the centre
Be my hope, be my song
Jesus
(Chorus)
*Be the fire in my heart
Be the wind in these sails
Be the reason that I live
Jesus, Jesus*

Jesus, be my vision
Be my path, be my guide
Jesus
(Chorus)
*Be the fire in my heart
Be the wind in these sails
Be the reason that I live
Jesus, Jesus*
