

WWPM 21.12.17: Australian Southern Territory

Prayer points:

- Commissioners Floyd and Tracey Tidd and the new national cabinet and senior executive team. Pray for continuing inspiration and energy of body, mind and spirit in these demanding days.
- Consultancy teams who have been engaged to assist in the transition and facilitating a new way forward.
- The new Victoria division which comes into being in January 2018. This involves the merging of 3 divisions, and later the Victorian State Social Command, into one division. This is a complex transition which impacts on many levels.
- Employees and officers who are experiencing anxiety in the midst of uncertainty about their employment / appointments going forward.
- Need for more officers/leaders. There is a new candidate recruitment strategy being implemented across the nation.
- ‘Summer Carnival’ - territorial youth event Jan 8-12 where 400 youth +100 leaders gather. Theme: ‘You’re not alone – We belong together’. This will be the 6th such event and over that time many significant faith and life decisions have been made by the young people who gather.
- Officers and their families who have recently received farewell orders for the General Change which takes place in January.

PRAISE POINTS:

- New captivating vision being promoted and embraced around the nation.
- Positive exposure in the media and public and corporate support leading up to Christmas.
- Recruitment of quality executive employees who strongly align with TSA mission and values.
