

WORLD WIDE PRAYER MEETING
January 17, 2019 - Brazil Territory

Territorial Leaders: Colonels Edward and Deborah Horwood
Chief Secretary: Lieut-Colonel Douglas Danielson
TSWM: Lieut-Colonel Verônica J. Danielson

Statistics: Officers 159 (active 112 retired 47)
Cadets 4 Employees 424 Corps 43 Outposts 7
Senior Soldiers 1,644 Adherents 101
Junior Soldiers 380

Prayer points:

- For new initiatives in internal communication such as the "Conversations" dialogue that we are going to start between the Territorial Commander and young people of the Territory.
- That The Salvation Army can make a difference in domestic violence and human trafficking that takes place during, but is not limited to the "Carnival" holiday ("Mardi Gras" - excessive celebrations typical in Brazil on Shrove Tuesday at the start of the Lenten season), through both consciousness raising and intervention.
- For the three new Lieutenants of the "Messengers of Compassion" Session who were commissioned in December 2018 and will take up their appointments in January 2019, and for the call of God on the nine Candidates of the "Messengers of Grace" in 2019.
- For the public relations and fundraising efforts with an eye toward self-support, including the continued development of our second-hand thrift shop operation, "Salvashopping".
- For the development of Officers to occupy key posts in the Territory.
- For peace and order now that a new President has been elected, that the results will be accepted by the whole of the country that there can be restoration and healing, and that the new President will govern for the good of all Brazilians.
- For the ministry efforts in Roraima state (very northern Brazil) to Venezuelans fleeing the difficulties in their country. May the Lord use our Officers and employees as they serve these people who have left what little they had behind to seek to be able to make a life for themselves in Brazil.
