The mission of The Salvation Army in Ghana is “to seek ways to introduce people to the gospel of Jesus Christ. Our teaching must strengthen them in their faith and understanding of the one true God, facilitating the growth of the Christian church. Our outreach is aimed at seeking and meeting the needs of the local community with initiative and vision as servants of Christ.” Toward this aim, the gospel is preached in 11 different languages.

The Army of the Ghana Territory has asked us to pray:

- that many Christians in the Army in Ghana will respond to the call of the Lord into officership.
- that the spiritual life of both Officers and comrades will deepen in order for a Spirit-filled Army of the Lord be expanded by way of evangelism.
- That God will give higher wisdom to our Divisional Leaders, Officers and Local Leaders with regard to finances. We need strategic ideas to help our territory to be financially independent and stable.
- that youth, men and women will give their lives to God and respond to the call of officership without looking to what will happen to their lives in terms of finance.
- for Ghana as a nation—that God may continue to shower His peace upon the nation and grant leaders and rulers the wisdom and love for mankind

For our Canada & Bermuda Territory Prayer Focus, we ask you to remember The Salvation Army’s Christmas Ministry and all who minister and receive this ministry.

Prayer:

As if it were not enough
To bring sound from silence,
Light from darkness,
Order from confusion;
As if it were not enough
To make the world excellent and intricate,
You gave the kiss of life to the dust of the earth.
You made male and female,
Me and us.
SO WE BLESS YOU.

As if it were not enough
To watch the world you had created,
To admire your handiwork from eternity;
As if it were not enough
To care and be kind at a distance,
You sent your Son to be flesh of our flesh,
Bone of our bone,
To live and walk beside
Me and us.
SO WE BLESS YOU.

As if it were not enough
To be looked at and listened to,
Criticized and complimented,
Feted and forsaken,
You stretched out your arm and held out your hand
To heal and to help
Me and us.
SO WE BLESS YOU

As if it were not enough
To do all this and return, triumphant, to glory,
You still hear our cries in the courts of high heaven,
And promise your Spirit for the healing of the nations
And for me and for us.
SO WE BLESS YOU,
GOD OF ALL POWER,
LORD OF OUR WEAKNESS,
SPIRIT OF OUR SALVATION.
AMEN.
