

WEEK FOUR: Praying the Hours “God’s movement in our Territory”
March 27, 2019

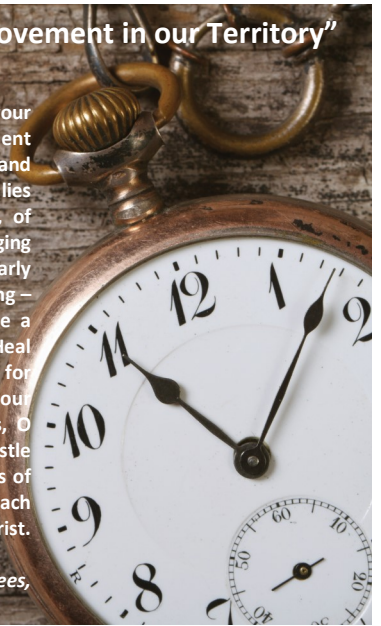

“Lord, help us across this territory to be sincere citizens of your Kingdom. Forgive us when we get distracted by what life throws at us. We want your reign in us, as individuals and as The Salvation Army. Among other things, this means that in every decision we make, every cause we embrace, and every project we take on – we first of all ask if this is what you want. Are there areas where we’re moving without your blessing? Do you want us to move in a different direction, perhaps being your Voice where no one else is speaking? Help us to listen better! Show us where we might be off track. And may enough of us clearly hear that we will then confirm your plans, knowing that you are indeed doing a new thing in The Salvation Army in Canada and Bermuda! Increase our faith Lord! Amen.” (Major April McNeilly)

WEEK FOUR: Praying the Hours “God’s movement in our Territory”
March 28, 2019

“Lord Jesus, we come to you for spiritual preparation. Lay your hand upon us. Anoint us with the oil of the New Testament prophet. Forbid that we should become religious scribes and thus lose our prophetic calling. Save us from the curse that lies dark across the modern clergy, the curse of compromise, of imitation, of professionalism. Save us from the error of judging a church by its size, its popularity or the amount of its yearly offering. Help us to remember that we have a prophetic calling – we’re not promoters, not religious managers, but we have a prophetic voice. Let us never become slaves to crowds. Heal our souls of carnal ambitions and deliver us from the itch for publicity. Save us from bondage to things. Let us not waste our days puttering around the house. Lay your terror upon us, O God, and drive us to the place of prayer where we may wrestle with principalities and powers and the rulers of the darkness of this world. Deliver us from overeating and late sleeping. Teach us self-discipline that we may be good soldiers of Jesus Christ. Amen.”

(A. W. Tozer. Adapted from an excerpt in Army on its Knees, published by Salvation Books)

WEEK FOUR: Praying the Hours
“God’s movement in our Territory”
March 29, 2019

“God - you alone are God! You are the immeasurably more, all-sufficient, all-powerful God. We praise You for who You are and we bow humbly seeking you: No not by might, nor even power, But by Your Spirit, O Lord - Healer of hearts, binder of wounds; lives that are lost - restore! Flow through this land - until everyone - Praises Your name, once more. Amen!”

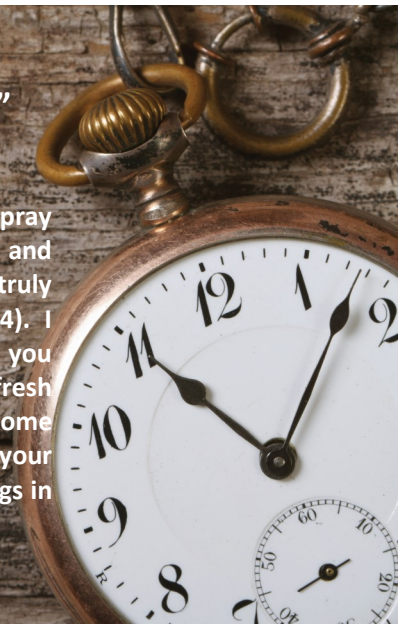

(Major Sandra Stokes)

WEEK FOUR: Praying the Hours
“God’s movement in our Territory”
March 30, 2019

“Father, today I lift up our Territory to you. I pray that we come together in a Spirit of Love and unity as a body of believers. Empower us to truly do everything in love! (1 Corinthians 16:14). I pray that through the power of your Spirit you would move across our beautiful country in fresh and exciting ways. I pray that others would come to know you in a personal way. We are your people and we are blessed. I pray these things in Jesus’ name. Amen.”

WEEK FOUR: Praying the Hours “God’s movement in our Territory”
March 31, 2019

God our Father, we acknowledge your power, your greatness and your sacrificial love. We praise You for your plan of salvation and thank You for raising up those who share in your heartbeat for rescuing the lost. We are humbled that You use this Army to reach out and proclaim that hope and salvation are found only in You. Lord, there are many needs across our Territory and we often feel overwhelmed, but we pray that You would open our minds and remind us that you know all things; we pray that our spirits would be in tune with your Spirit; we pray that You would move among us all and keep us faithful to and focused on your mission. We pray that You would use us to be your feet and hands and mouth. We pray for changes in the atmosphere so that the ears and hearts of our people would be receptive to your voice. You have called your church to proclaim your Name and it is in that great Name we pray that we may see fresh fires of revival move across our territory. This we pray and believe in the great name of Jesus, AMEN !

(Major Claudette Pilgrim)

WEEK FOUR: Praying the Hours
“God’s movement in our Territory”

April 1, 2019

“Holy Spirit, descend on us, individually and corporately, please; seize us with power, that we will be Your captivating, contagious, compelling witnesses in Botwood, Sherbrooke, through to Hamilton, Meadow Lake, Medicine Hat, and to the ends of Prince Rupert.”

(Major Stephen Court)

WEEK FOUR: Praying the Hours “God’s movement in our Territory”
April 2, 2019

“Thank you Lord for making us strong in your mighty power! Remind us that our struggle isn’t against flesh-and-blood-people, but we’re in a supernatural war. There are rulers and powers in the demonic realm that literally scheme against us as we further your Kingdom. We put on the belt of truth, being honest with those all around us. The breastplate of righteousness inspires us to be people of integrity, with hearts full of love and goodness. Help us lace our shoes tightly to be ready to deliver the good news of Jesus. Remind us to lift high the shield of faith to extinguish the temptations the enemy throws at us. And as we place on the helmet of salvation, may it bring us overwhelming joy to imagine eternity with you! May your Word be as a mighty sword, delivering blows to the enemy, even as these same words offer life to mankind. We need you to rule supreme in this Salvation Army! May we stand strong in your Name, taking your message of hope and salvation to this world with increased passion and zeal. Help us be fully in this salvation-war! Protect us. Fill us. Embolden us. In Jesus’ Name - Amen!”

(Major April McNeilly. Based on Eph. 6:10-17)
