

Praise the Lord for:

- The Salvation Army's 60 years of ministry in Papua New Guinea this year and the Congress of celebration held Apr. 24, 2016.
- The dedication of many Salvationists who gathered weekly at 5:00 a.m. to pray for the Congress.
- Territorial Leadership, 327 officers, more than 150 corps and outposts, and over 11,000+ Senior Soldiers & Adherent Members

Matters for Prayer:

Education:

- The "mango tree" education and literacy program that trains teachers to go into remote areas to teach children who would otherwise go without basic education.
- The more than 3700 children & young adults who receive a quality Christian education through The Salvation Army PNG. Pray for the schools, for wise administrators, principals and Christian teachers who influence a generation of PNG children.
- The 194 Literacy programs, which are providing a vital service to the more than 50% of school age children do not attend school.
- The Lae Street School, where up to 150 street children receive an education who suffer from poverty, or are AIDS orphans. The children are glad to come, as they not only receive teaching, but food as well.

Pray for the ministries of 14 new Cadet Lieutenants who were commissioned Feb. 7th in Kainantu. Pray as well for the Lord to raise up officers for national leadership in the Territory.

Leadership:

- Cadets in the two colleges training for full time service.
- The influence of officers and health workers in villages and communities.
- The work and influence of TYS Lt Gini Bugave whose child protection awareness program teaches about safe environments for children.
- Pray for youth to rise up and lead the Army into the future.
- Pray for government leaders to rise up who will bring an end to corruption and dysfunctional government.
- Territorial Leaders Cols. Andrew & Yvonne Westrupp and Chief Secretary Lt. Col. Kelvin Alley. Pray that their leadership would be consistent with the faith they openly profess.
- Pray for officers to embrace the challenges of leadership development; learning new things and putting them into practice in their appointments.
- Pray for Visa approval for April & Marco, daughter & son-in-law of Majors Bill & Donna Barthau; for Marco to work at the Koki Clinic as Doctor in charge & for April to work as the Clinic manager.

Finances

- Pray for generous increase in desperately needed financial resources so the Territory can grow and expand its mission.
- Pray for wisdom & guidance for the Territorial Leaders to help the Territory achieve financial sustainability for the future.
