SPOT THE RISKS

HUMAN TRAFFICKING – Sex and Labour Trafficking –

■ Poverty and economic vulnerability

■ Environmental, relational and situational instability

■ Vulnerable Minorities

■ Forced migration, displacement and consumerism

■ Gender inequality, gender identity and sexual orientation

■ Limited access to education and lack of information about trafficking

The presence of two or more of these risks increase the vulnerability of a person to become a potential victim of modern slavery and human trafficking. If you suspect someone is a victim of human trafficking, call the Canadian Human Trafficking Hotline: 1-833-900-1010
