

Single Statement Option

Direction: In one, punchy sentence, declare your local commitment.

Pro tip: Keep it pithy by ensuring that you can read your statement out loud in one breath.

OR

Paragraph Option

Direction: Dive into the details of your local commitment with a paragraph or two.

Pro tip: Stuck on where to begin? Start with a simple formula:

[Ministry unit] is a [who you are] that [what you do] guided by [what you look like/want to look like] and rooted in [why you do it].

OR

Collection of Ideas Option

Direction: List the ideas and steps from your local commitment using bullet points.

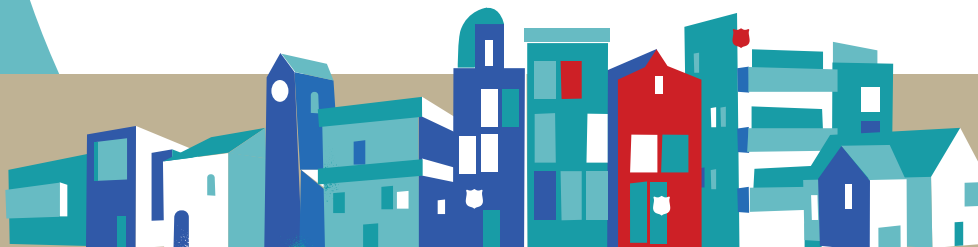

Pro tip: Begin each idea with a verb to ensure that every step is actionable.

OR

Visual Option

Direction: Design an infographic or other visual that represents your local commitment.

Pro tip: Pair any abstract visual with a legend to define the key components.

Articulating a LOCAL COMMITMENT